Subject: Andrew Levine - Current laptop question/potential new laptop set up

Hi all – Can someone let me know how old Andrew Levine's laptop is? He mentioned that he noticed it's started running really slow this week. He'll be in NY next week and we discussed just setting him up on a new device (while you all diagnose his current machine).

Did you receive the new laptops we ordered? It may be arriving tomorrow. Once your team receive the new laptops, are we able to get one set up for Andrew this week, so it arrives to his home latest by Friday? I have his password for when it's needed. Let me know, thank you!
